Powder Does Frightful Havoc Upon the Kashima.

TWENTY-SEVEN ARE DEAD

While the Crew of a Japanese War Vessel Was Engaged in Target Firing Off the Coast of That Land There Was a Fateful Disaster.

Toledo, Sept. 17.—By the explosion of a twelve-inch shell on board the Japanese battleship Kashima while there was target practice forty of her crew were killed or wounded. The accident occurred off Kure. The Kashima, under the command of Captain Kozumi, two hours afterward, reached Kure, where the wounded were placed in a hospital. The fatalities included a Lieutenant, two cadets and one staff officer, the rank and name of whom are not given.

The details regarding the effects of the explosion are lacking, but it was terrific and the ship was badly damaged. The explosion followed an attempt to remove an unexploded shell from the gun. A majority of the bystanders were fearfully maimed.

A later report states the fatalities were five officers and twenty-two men. Two officers and six men were seriously injured and two officers and six men slightly hurt.

The cause of the explosion is under investigation. It occurred in the side shield starboard near the ten-inch guns. It was not a shell which exploded, but powder, which evidently caught fire from gas emitted from the breech when opened for the purpose of reloading the gun. The hull of Kashima was not damaged.

PANHANDLE PRODUCTS.

Large Display of Them Is to Be Made at State Fair.

Amarillo, Tex., Sept. 17.—Through a move being taken in charge by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce representative displays of Panhandle products are to be collected and sent to various fairs this fall. A special exhibit of corn, Kaffir, milo maize and sorghums will be sent to the National Corn exposition at Chicago and a display will be sent to the National Farmers' congress at Oklahoma City, but the largest and best-attended display, if present plans are carried out, will be at the Dallas fair.

The advertising committee of the Chamber of Commerce is preparing for a special observance of Panhandle day at the Texas State fair at Dallas, and it is certain that the north Panhandle will be represented at the exposition this year on a scale never attempted before.

THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE.

More Than Three Hundred Scottish Rite Masons In Session.

Boston, Sept. 17.—Scottish Rite Masons of the thirty-third degree, more than 300 in number, were present at the opening of the ninety-sixth annual meeting of the supreme council of the Scottish Rite Masons of the Northern jurisdiction here Tuesday. Grand Commander Henry L. Palmer of Milwaukee opened the three days' conference. Among important matters to be considered is the report of delegates of the Northern jurisdiction to the international congress at Brussels. Fifty Masons who had been elected to the thirty-third were initiated at the evening session.

AUTO HITS POLE.

Three Elks Were Killed Instantly and Fourth Reported Dying.

Colorado Springs, Sept. 17.—An automobile containing a party of seven Elks returning from Manitou ran into a telephone pole Tuesday. Three men were killed outright and a fourth reported to be dying. The three victims were William Brown, a dealer in electrical supplies; Fraton Graves, a druggist, and the chauffeur, named Grey. The party attended a social session at their clubhouse, given in honor of visiting Elks, and were on their way home, driving at a fast speed.

ELECTRICAL TREATMENT.

Progress Being Made Forms General Topic of Discussion.

Boston, Sept. 17.—The progress being made in the application of electricity to the treatment of human ailments were the general topic of discussion among the 400 physicians attending the eighth annual meeting of the American Electro Therapeutic association in session here. Important papers were read by many members who have gained particular success in the study and use of electrical treatment during Tuesday afternoon's session. The programme was occupied with an inspection of the laboratory of Harvard Medical school.

One Dead, Another Arrested.

Galveston, Sept. 16.—Thomas Wilson was found dead. Willie Love, another negro, was arrested.

National Negro Baptist Convention Hot Place.

ALL ABOUT BROWNSVILLE

Resolutions Introduced Were Strong In Character and After a Great Deal of Discussion Considerably Modified and Adopted.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Despite the efforts of some of the leaders to keep out of its discussion all matters political, the National Negro Baptist convention after a stormy session, in the course of which Presiding Officer Morris threatened to leave the chamber, hotly debated the Brownsville affair. The committee on the state of the Union had refused to eliminate from its report all reference to the question, and had prepared resolutions on the subject which it is learned, severely criticised President Roosevelt and strongly praised Senator Foraker for the stand he had taken. It was only through fear of disrupting the convention that the delegates after supporting the purpose of the committee to submit the report reconsidered and consented to a milder set of resolutions offered by the presiding officer. The resolutions are as follows:

"In common with all good citizens we deplore what has come to be known as the Brownsville affair, and we trust that time will yet reveal the real perpetrators of the crime. "The entire country is under a debt for gratitude to the Hon. J. B. Foraker and others who secured for the soldiers the right to be heard in their own defense. The convention adjourned finally.

DIVING BELL MARRIAGE.

Nearly All Participants Arrayed In Bathing Suits.

New York, Sept. 17.—That ceremony of marriage was a disgrace, and the preacher who took part should be unfrocked, in my judgment, for permitting himself to be used in so spectacular a manner," declared the Rev. G. W. McPaerson, superintendent of the Camp Evangel, of Fifty-seventh street and Broadway, when he heard of the wedding of a young couple in a diving bell at the bottom of the Hippodrome tank.

The wedding to which he objects was that of George Fairman of Brooklyn and Miss Alberta Michel of Scranton, Pa., and was performed by the Rev. H. D. Hughes, pastor of the Nonsectarian church of Coney Island.

The wedding party was attired in bathing suits, except three or four members of the "Neptune's Daughter" cast, who wore the costumes of their parts. The bride, who is a petite blonde, wore a dark blue bathing suit, cut rather low in the neck, with a broad horizontal and vertical bar of scarlet running across the waist and joining just over her heart. The bridegroom wore a swimming suit of the same color, and the portly Rev. Mr. Hughes wore a gray snug-fitting bathing suit.

Miss Rose C. Tillotson, bridesmaid, was effectively gowned in a light blue silk bathing costume with white silk collar, one white and one blue silk stocking, and a single pearl.

She rather diverted attention of the coryhees and other Hippodrome employees from the bride, being taller and more noticeable.

The ceremony was recited by the Rev. Mr. Hughes between his gasps for breath, because of the high pressure of the atmosphere in the diving bell.

Those who witnessed the ceremony got the impression that Mr. Hughes would have collapsed if it had lasted much longer. The bride's and bridesmaids' faces were flushed and their mouths were open as they gasped for air during the ceremony.

REBATE COUPON.

Alabama Executive Says That Does Not Meet the Situation.

Birmingham, Sept. 17.—The Louisville and Nashville railroad in seeking to comply with the new 2 1/2 cent passenger rate law of this state, have begun the sale tickets within Alabama with coupons attached which entitle passengers to a rebate of half a cent per mile has a case to suit which the railroad brought against the state commission to prevent enforcement of the law is decided against it. Governor Comer said this does not meet the situation and will not be accepted by the state administration as compliance with the law.

Mann Makes Many Mad.

Orange, Mass., Sept. 17.—Majority of citizens are incensed at Tax Collector Mann and they threaten to make an effort to have him arrested. As a means of impressing the tax obligation upon delinquents he has caused "THAT TAX" to be painted in large white letters upon the sidewalks of every street corner. It is for road purposes.

BRYAN, TEXAS, SEPT 18, 1907

That Tennessee Home Coming is going to be the best scheme ever devised to promote immigration to Texas. Every one of the thousand Tennessee Texans, after emptying the little cider jug with the corn-cob stopper that will be handed to him, will feel inspired to tell his old neighbors about the grandeur and glory of Texas and the pre-eminent excellence of everything that grows in Texas. The man from the piney woods will have his tale to tell about three and four jointed goobers as big as the biggest Tennessee sweet potato, and possums larger and fatter than Tennessee hogs; the black land farmer will assure them that it is not uncommon to shell a half bushel of clean heavy grains of corn off a single ear; the central Texan will refer to his local newspaper to prove that his county produces enough cotton to clothe the world; the coaster will exhaust his vocabulary of superlatives extolling on sugar, rice, oysters and tarpon; the plainsman will have the figures to prove that one of his white-face or black muley yearlings will outweigh the best shorthorn three-year-old in Maury county; the man from "down on the Rio Grande" will expatiate on onions and wax eloquent while he portrays the superiority of mescal over moonshine whiskey; the man from the trans-Pecos will call Lookout mountain "a little hill" and talk nonchalantly about peaches, apples and pears as big as Tennessee pumpkins. The result will be a migration never dreamed of by the Five Million Club.

The following prayer is written on the flyleaf of a Texas preacher's Bible: "Lord, help me, as a preacher, to be conciliatory but not servile; winning, but not fawning; timely, but not time-serving; simple, but not common-place; plain, but not labored; interesting, but not sensational; direct, but not blunt; positive, but not dogmatic; bold, but not blustering; earnest, but not declamatory; audible, but not vociferous; animate, but not boisterous; dignified, but not stilted; affectionate, but not sentimental; tender, but not lachrymose; persuasive, but not sophist; orderly, but not mechanical; precise, but not prim; pointed, but not harsh; unctuous, but not canting. Amen."—Exchange.

A contributor to Texas Woman says Farmer Shaw "made the best speech of the summer solstice and hit every bellowing bull square in the eye that has been pawing the dust from one end of Texas to the other." If a copy of this number of Texas Woman should fall into the hands of President Roosevelt it is a safe bet that he will prefer a charge of nature faking, Oct. 4

MARRIED IN WACO,

The Monday issue of the Waco Times-Herald gives an account of the marriage of Mr. Nicholas Lobello, a well known young Italian business man of this city, and son of L. Lobello, to Miss Perella, a much esteemed young lady of that city. Upon their return from an extended wedding trip they will make their home in Bryan. The Times-Herald says:

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the Church of the Assumption, Rev. Father P. J. Clancy officiating, Mr. Nicholas Lobello of Bryan, and Miss Frances Lucile Perella were married in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, the occasion being a happy one, the felicitations being hearty and general.

As Mr. Toledo Komendo was singing "Ave Marie," the bridal party entered, Miss Zuma Wallace playing the wedding march. Little Marguerite Pinto as ring bearer came in first, dressed in white organdie over pink silk, and carried the ring on a white satin pillow. The two little flower girls, Juanita Tusa and Hosa Todaro, were dressed in white, and the bridesmaids, Misses Jennie Ground and Annie Cuccio, also dressed in white, with large picture hats and the maid of honor, Miss Carolina Kemendo, wore pink chiffon over pink silk, a picture hat completing the costume. The best man was Mr. Sam Lobello, and the other two attendants were Messrs. Joe and Tony Perella. Last came the bride, dressed in real lace over cream satin and orange blossoms in her hair.

After the marriage ceremony the guests drove to the Woodmen hall, where the reception took place. Mr. and Mrs. Lobello left last night for Denver, Colo., on their bridal tour.

COMMISSION TAKES ACTION

Three Suits Each Against Two Texas Railroads.

Austin, Sept. 17.—The railroad commission decided to direct the attorney general to institute three suits against the Texas and New Orleans railway and a like number against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railway to recover penalties for failure to furnish the commission with certain information for statistical purposes in accordance with orders issued by the commission requesting the information.

The first order, which the commission claims has not been complied with, is dated July 31, and in this order the commission requests the above named roads to furnish a complete statement, showing the total number of all freight cars handled from certain stations during the month of October, 1905, and during the month of June, 1906.

The second order directs the above roads to furnish the commission with a complete statement showing the legal expenses of these roads for a period of five years, ending June 30, 1907.

The third order of the commission was issued Aug. 2, and requires the above lines to furnish the commission a complete statement of all loss on account of damages resulting from freight claims account of interstate and intrastate shipments and local shipments for the year ending June 30, 1907.

Hon Jake F. Wolters, the well known attorney of Houston, is here on legal business. He is briefing quite an important case from La Grange, which is to be appealed to the court of civil appeals. It is the case from Fayette county wherein the compress there was destroyed by fire, which, it was alleged, was caused by a passing locomotive of the Katy. Attorney Wolters is representing the railroad company.

Mr. Wolters is also attorney for the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association of Texas. Asked about the attitude of the saloon men of San Antonio, Mr. Wolters said he had nothing to do with the matter, but that he believes that all laws should be obeyed.

The governor has another board to appoint, and he will likely name it when he gets time to consider the proposition. The board to be appointed is the San Jacinto battlefield commission, which is to consist of three members. Under the terms of the law the governor may appoint this commission when he gets ready. There is no special hurry about it.

Judge W. E. Hawkins, first assistant attorney general, returned from southwest Texas, where he and Land Commissioner Terrell have been conducting certain investigations regarding certain alleged frauds which are about to be perpetrated against the school fund. It seems that the original lessees of land in that section, or certain of them, are making an effort to perpetuate their leases, being the original lessees, under the law granting them preference right. Judge Hawkins has been away for several weeks. It is expected that a number of suits will be instituted as a result of this investigation.

Some complaint on the part of parents over the many different school boards that are required in nearly all of the schools. The new school text book law which will be in force all over the state by the time the next scholastic year opens, will to some extent relieve the situation so many claim. Under its provisions the larger cities are not exempt, and must abide by its enactments.

PERMIT REFUSED.

Commissioner Says Order Does Not Comply With Texas Laws.

Austin, Sept. 17.—Insurance Commissioner Love has declined to grant a permit to the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, a negro Elk organization from Ohio. Application for permission to do business in Texas came from Fort Worth and Lodge was to have been known as Panther City Lodge No. 61. Commissioner Love refused to grant the permit on the ground that the order does not comply with the laws of this state. A copy of the by-laws was also received. They are rather interesting. One of them is to the effect that it shall be a misdemeanor for members to slip to each other a drink of intoxicating liquor during a session of the lodge, and it is also an offense "to come into the lodgeroom drunk or otherwise."

Conflict In Game Law.

Austin, Sept. 17.—A conflict exists in the new game law upon which the attorney general has been requested to pass. One provision provides that the open season for turkeys shall be in November, December and January, and in another it states that wild turkeys shall not be killed during the months of April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November.

TO WIPE OUT FINE.

Chicago Paper Says Standard Oil Attorneys Are Taking Steps.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—The Tribune says the Standard Oil company attorneys are seeking to wipe out the $29,240,000 fine imposed by Judge Landis out of existence on technicalities. They claim that had they known immunity from prosecution had been promised the Alton railroad they would have questioned the railroad witnesses differently on the theory that the testimony of the railroad employees might have been largely influenced by the knowledge that their employers had been guaranteed immunity.

FISH DISTRIBUTION.

Stops In Texas Owing to Anti-Free Pass Law.

Waxahachie, Tex., Sept. 17.—On account of the operation of the anti-free pass law in Texas the free distribution of fish in this state by the department of fisheries of the United States has been discontinued. This information has just been obtained through Congressman Beall of the Fifth district. Some weeks ago a citizen of Waxahachie applied to the fisheries department at Washington for fish with which to stock lake. After waiting a sufficient length of time and receiving no reply the party asked Congressman Beall to write the department concerning the matter. The letter was written as requested and a reply was received by Congressman Beall in which it was stated that owing to the operation of certain laws recently enacted in Texas no more fish would be distributed by the government. No particular law was referred to, but as all fish for stocking lakes and streams had been hauled free by the railroads of the state, the inference is that the department had the anti-free pass law in mind.
